One of the most sold units for large accounts globally.

ON-DEMAND PERFORMANCE

The perfect answer to all your needs, convenient with a wide selection of options.

BUILT TO LAST

Long-lasting and reliable bellow pump technology.

The COROB D410x is the most accurate automatic dispenser with bellow pump technology that combines medium to high performance, and versatility in one professional unit.

One of the best seller among the COROB mid-range dispenser offer it is now renewed with the integration of the next generation of electronics that delivers the smart cost-conscious simultaneous on-demand unit, or allows for choosing a more performing and faster fully simultaneous version.

Available in various models, the D410x offers maximum flexibility and configurability thanks to a wide selection of options.

An ideal choice for many working environments and store layouts, such as professional paint stores, large retail, and DIY chains.

The extremely reliable bellow pump works with optimal accuracy, reliability, and speed. It is free from wear and tear due to the lack of mechanical stress between the pump and colorant, allowing it to last for a lifetime without needing to be changed.
